

English 1 - Lesson 1 - Introduction

"Good Presentation VS Bad Presentation"

- Write down the useful advice shared in the video:

You've just learned what a focus word is. Write down your own definition of it:

.....

.....

Listen to the video once again and highlight the focus words in these sentences :

- And, I would ask everyone to give him their full attention.
- I know it's very hard to give a presentation in front of the entire class.
- Now, would anyone like to offer Ranjit constructive feedback about his presentation?

- d. Any tips for what he might do differently next time?
- e. For example, were you all able to hear what Ranjit was saying?
- f. It's important, when you're speaking, to look up every sentence or two and make eye contact with someone in the audience.
- g. Anything else that Ranjit could do to appear more relaxed and feel more confident?
- h. Oh, and make sure your phone is off before you speak, next time!
- i. To connect with listeners, it's a great idea to use a personal story or experience as an example.
- j. I want you all to reflect on how much stronger today's presentation was.
- k. Ranjit looked us in the eyes, he spoke clearly, he smiled at us, and he used a personal anecdote to help us feel more connected to him.
